

THE GRASSMARKET SUMMER PROGRAMME - FREE OUTDOOR EVENTS

Edinburgh International Film Festival's Film Festival Under the Stars

Friday 19 & Saturday 20 June

The outdoor cinema experience for all the family moves to a new, specially created outdoor auditorium in the Grassmarket, for a weekend of film classics on the big screen under the stars.

Refreshments will be available from the surrounding cafes, bars and restaurants.

The Summer Dancin'

Saturday 4 July · 1pm – 9pm

The Grassmarket comes alive with an eclectic mix of music and dance. All the happy people who regularly enjoy many styles of classes at Dance Base hit the streets to celebrate the end of their Spring term, and they're inviting you to join them. Why not learn a new dance or enjoy an early evening tea dance, with live bandstand music, tea and cakes?

The Summer Dancin' Serenade, a programme of light, Latin music, will provide the soundtrack for swinging as the summer sun sets.

Highlights of The Summer Dancin' will carry on to our Sunday 5 July GrassMarket (see overleaf)

Mardi Gras

Saturday 1 August · 1pm – 4pm

in association with

The Edinburgh Jazz and Blues Festival

A carnival spirit comes to the Grassmarket as the Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival Mardi Gras returns for 2009.

The Mardi Gras parade (feel free to wear a mask or costume) will leave from the City Chambers (Royal Mile) at 12.30pm, down Victoria Street to its home in the Grassmarket, where Edinburgh's famous bluesman, Tam White, joined by a selection of top jazz and blues musicians, will launch three hours of non-stop music.

To help you get into the Mardi Gras spirit, prizes will be given for the best masks!

Highlights of the Mardi Gras will carry on to our Sunday 2 Aug GrassMarket (see overleaf)
